E-Verify Employer Agent Teleconference

Thursday, June 23, 2011 at 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM EST

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security invites all E-Verify Employer Agents (formerly known as Designated Agents) to a FREE one-hour educational teleconference. This teleconference is designed to inform you on the latest program changes, and to explain E-Verify procedures.

Who should attend?

Representatives of E-Verify Employer Agents (EEAs), Program Administrators, Human Resource Professionals/Specialists, and Payroll Administrators.

Why attend? What's in it for you?

Our goal is to meet with EEAs to:
- Reiterate policies and procedures.
- Create a culture of problem-solving and transparency.
- Provide updates on enhancements and improvements to the program.

What is an E-Verify Employer Agent?

An EEA is a U.S. company, corporation or business entity that is providing the service of verifying employees as a third party to clients (employers) through the use of E-Verify.

How to attend?

You'll need a computer with Internet access and telephone to participate.
